

Improve Patient Experience

with Purposeful Rounding

Purposeful Rounding has been proven effective to improve patient satisfaction and the patient experience.

Hourly Purposeful Rounding Evaluates:

Ensure patients have easy access to both personal items and medical items.

During rounds, the position of the patient should be adjusted to avoid pressure sores or pain.

Determine a patient's pain level and review medication schedules.

Address and assist with any hygiene or toileting needs.

Using Purposeful Rounding Hospitals have Reported:

13%

Customer satisfaction scores increased by 13%

50%

Increase in positive comments by 50%

34%

Reduction in patient grievances by 34%